This sub-section shall not be construed to prohibit the intentional breeding of animals on the premises of the owner of the animal.

(b) Exceptions.

(1) An animal which is not dangerous may be at large in the course of a show, obedience school, tracking tests, field training or other events sanctioned or supervised by a recognized organization.

Hunting dogs may be at large in the course of hunting, provided they are under the control of the owner.

(2) This exception does not exempt an owner from otherwise complying with any other provision of this Chapter.

(c) Animal Services shall impound at the county animal shelter any animal found to be at large in violation of this section.

(d) A dog or cat impounded for running at large may be reclaimed by its owner only upon the owner's agreement to have the animal micro-chipped at the owner's expense within thirty days of the date the animal is reclaimed. 4-121.

Sec. 4-42. Possession or release of inherently dangerous exotic animals.

(b) This Section does not apply to:

However, if the animal cannot be impounded safely by Animal Services or if proper and safe housing cannot be found for the animal, Animal Services shall immediately euthanize the animal.
- (3) The harbinger of the animal can reclaim the animal upon conditions established by the Animal Services Supervisor, and approved by the health director, including that a safe transfer of the animal to an appropriate location outside of the County has been arranged and shall immediately be made.
- (4) If the harbinger does not claim the animal or cannot be located within three (3) business days after impoundment, Animal Services may sell, transfer ownership of, or euthanize the animal at the discretion of the health director.

Chapter 4
Lee County Code
Animals

(5) All costs of impoundment and care of the animal will be charged to its harbinger regardless of whether the animal is claimed by or returned to said harbinger. In the event the animal is reclaimed, such costs shall be paid in full prior to the harbinger taking possession of the animal. If the animal is not reclaimed, the cost of impoundment and care shall be considered a debt to the county and collectable in a civil action.

Sec. 4-43. Allowing dangerous animals to be unrestrained.

(a) It is unlawful for any owner to possess a dangerous animal, as defined in this Chapter, unless it is restrained.

(b) Animal Services shall immediately impound any unrestrained dangerous animal at the owner's expense, except as provided below.

(c) As an alternative to impoundment, Animal Services shall notify the owner in writing that the dangerous animal is required to be confined in a secure enclosure complying with Section 4-63. The owner also shall be notified that a sign stating that a dangerous animal is on the premises must be purchased at the owner's expense. Proper signage must be approved by Animal Services and posted on the secure enclosure.

(d) The owner shall have 30 days from the date of notification to provide a secure enclosure. The animal deemed "dangerous" shall be under constant restraint on the owner's property during this period.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, Animal Services may in its sole discretion impound a dangerous animal and harbor it at the owner's expense pending the owner's construction of a secure enclosure. If an animal is impounded under this Section, the owner shall be given written notice that he may reclaim the animal if a secure enclosure is provided within 30 days. The owner shall be given written notice that failure to provide a secure enclosure within 30 days will result in the animal being euthanized.

(f) Appeals allowed.

(1) An owner may appeal from a determination by Animal Services that an animal is dangerous. The appeal shall be to a panel consisting of three members of the Consolidated Human Services Agency Board, one of which must be a licensed veterinarian.

(2) An appeal must be in writing and be made to Animal Services within three business days of issuance of the Notice of Violation. The Appeals Board will hold a hearing on the appeal within ten business days, if practical.

(3) If, by majority vote, an animal is determined not to be dangerous, the owner will be relieved of any previous order to construct a secure enclosure and if the animal has been impounded, it shall be immediately returned upon payment of boarding fees incurred prior to notice of appeal being given.

(4) If, by majority vote, an animal is determined to be dangerous, and the animal has been impounded, it will promptly be altered and micro-chipped at the owner's expense. If an animal is determined to be dangerous, but is still in the owner's custody, the owner shall provide to Animal Services within 30 days satisfactory proof the animal has been altered and microchipped.

Chapter 4
Lee County Code
Animals

(5) The owner of any animal determined to be dangerous is required to purchase a sign stating "Dog Deemed Dangerous" and post the sign at the entrance to the secure enclosure in a manner that is visible to persons outside the enclosure. Signage must be approved by Animal Services before posting.

(g) Animal Services may inspect a secure enclosure at any time to ensure it complies with Section 4-63.

Sec. 4-44. Failure to report certain acts by dangerous animals.

The owner of a dangerous animal shall inform Animal Services no later than 24 hours after the occurrence of any of the following:

- (1) An assault, attack or biting upon any human being by such animal in the owner's care or control.
- (2) An attack or biting upon any domesticated animal or pet while the animal is off the owner's property.

Sec. 4-45. Operating attack training facilities restricted.

It shall be unlawful for any person, group of persons, partnership or corporation to operate any attack training facility as defined in this article.

Sec. 4-46. Failing to provide proper shelter for dogs.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any owner to fail to provide for each dog in his care proper shelter as described herein.

(1) Proper shelter for a dog shall have a roof, a solid floor, and at least three sides sufficient to prevent exposure to the elements. Notwithstanding these foregoing requirements, a plastic barrel is a proper shelter for a dog. All shelters must be large enough to allow the dog to lie comfortably and contain dry bedding at all times. During the daytime in April thru October, the shelter must provide a cooler temperature inside than the ambient outside temperature.

(b) The area underneath exterior steps decks and stoops; inside of vehicles; underneath vehicles; inside metal barrels or cardboard boxes; inside rooms, and sheds or other buildings that do not provide windows or adequate ventilation shall not be considered proper shelter.

- (4) The weight of the tether shall not exceed ten percent of the animal's weight but shall be of sufficient strength to prevent breakage.
- (5) The tether by design and placement shall allow the animal a reasonable and unobstructed range of motion without the possibility of entanglement, strangulation, or other injury. The tether shall allow the access to adequate food, water, and shelter.
- (6) Only one animal shall be attached to a single tether.
- (7) Pulley systems, running lines, and trolley systems may be used in conjunction with a tether.

The sides of the enclosure must be at least six feet high and constructed of at least 16-gauge wire with openings no greater than 1" x 1". Division 5. Impoundment, Redemption, and Adoption of Animals.

Sec. 4-121. Impoundment.

Animals may be impounded as provided for in this Chapter. Impoundment of an animal shall not prevent Animal Services from using any other remedy provided by this Chapter.

Sec. 4-122. Notice of impoundment.

Immediately upon impounding an animal, Animal Services shall make reasonable effort to notify the owner of the impoundment and the conditions under which the animal may be redeemed. If the owner is unknown or cannot be located, notice of such impoundment shall be posted at the website www.leecountync.gov in the Animal Services section.

Animal Services is authorized to obtain an adoption agreement from an applicant to implement the provisions of this Section. Failure to comply with the adoption agreement requires the applicant to return the animal to Animal Services and also authorizes Animal Services to impound the animal.

(c) No animal shall be adopted during a period of emergency rabies quarantine, as defined in Section 4-91, except by special authorization of the health director.

(d) Any animal that in the opinion of Animal Services exhibits characteristics or tendencies making it unsuitable as a pet shall not be offered for adoption.
